The municipal gallery of San Juan y Martínez was inaugurated in 1984. It aims to promote and promote the artistic talent of the territory, managing to exhibit in its rooms an acceptable program of exhibitions of relevant artists both provincial and national. Consists of an exhibition hall and 5 workers

Other spaces such as the ISCED Lobby (DPC) and PNR Hall (PNR) Popular Councils Grandparents' House and schools have a stable program attended by the Gallery in the municipality. The same has an adequate technical-constructive state. The gallery serves 7 artists. It also has 2 projects of appreciation and creation, which mix the visual arts with literature and performing arts and also creates a space for dialogue, monthly, with the artists in each sample. It has characterized spaces and an intentional varied programming for all age groups.
