The old building today shows a different appearance, although it retains the typical details of the twentieth century, specifically from the 40s, when the hotel opened its doors.

The Crucible is also of preference for its central location in the city and for the good treatment of workers to customers

The changes range from the rooms, the facade, the restaurant, the kitchen to the inner courtyard.

This hotel has 10 double rooms and two triple rooms, the first with a price of 80 pesos national currency and triple rooms at 90.

Completely new furniture that includes beds, mattresses, night lamps, bedside tables and other details are included in the change of image of the rooms, which also have air conditioning, TV, fan and telephone.

Those who stay will be entitled to breakfast, lunch and lunch at reasonable prices and reservations can be requested through the Reservations Bureau, located on the 12 floors of the capital of Pinar del Rio.
