In this unit you can eat pizzas and spaghetti of different types and cream cheese. It also has a bar where soft drinks and alcoholic beverages are sold.

The center has two team workers, that work every day from nine in the morning until 11 at night, because this is one of the units most needed by the population, given its proximity to the Leon Cuervo Rubio Hospital and schools, as well as belonging to the Hermanos Cruz neighborhood that has a high population.

The image shows a wooden menu board for 'Cafetería ofertas EL Criollito'. The board is made of light-colored wood and has a rustic, handcrafted appearance. It is divided into two main columns by a central vertical wooden strip. The left column lists various pasta dishes and pizzas, while the right column lists meat and poultry dishes. Each item is written on a separate wooden strip, which is then placed into a slot on the board. The prices are also written on the strips, often with a small icon or symbol next to them. The board is mounted on a wall with a textured, greyish-blue background.
