Vueltabajo Hotel Facade. The life and work of the poet Dulce María Loynaz will be honored on March 7, 2019, at 3.00 pm, by witnessing the launch of one of her most famous books, "Poemas náufragos". The subhost of the International Book Fair that is already in session in our city of Pinar del Río will be the majestic Vueltabajo Hotel. The frame of this event will also serve to announce the opening of the room of this enclosure in which the author spent the night in the last century and which will become the insignia of her historic passage through the hotel.
